CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The Department of Defense Office of Inspector General offers potential applicants more than just jobs and professions. A career with the DoD OIG offers those who qualify an opportunity to serve our Nation and those who are defending it worldwide.

That is why we are looking for the best -- the most qualified and highly motivated professionals to serve as auditors, investigators, inspectors, special agents, and as specialists in a wide range of support occupations including budget, human resource management, procurement, and information technology. All have a direct impact on the mission capability, safety, and welfare of the U.S. warfighter. Many of the DoD OIG audits, inspections, and investigations are in direct support of the Global War on Terror.

Those chosen to serve with the DoD OIG receive great benefits and have a wide range of programs available to them, including opportunities to further their education.

The rewards are many, but the greatest reward is knowing that you have made a significant contribution to the men and women in the U.S. Armed Forces who are serving our Nation and the cause of freedom.

CAREER FIELDS

AUDITING

This office conducts performance and financial audits on all facets of Defense Department operations. The work results in reduced costs, improved performance, stronger internal controls, and compliance with laws and regulations within the DoD. Auditing efforts routinely result in potential cost savings of billions of dollars annually. Auditing performs the primary internal audit functions of the Office of Inspector General within the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Unified and Specified Commands, Military Departments and the Defense agencies. This office primarily hires auditors and management analysts.

INVESTIGATIONS

This office conducts Federal law enforcement involving DoD interests, investigations of alleged misconduct on the part of senior officials, and investigations of reprisal against military and civilian whistleblowers. Investigations efforts focus on protecting the Defense Department from criminals who illegally profit from the Defense budget through a variety of fraudulent schemes. Each year, our special agents are responsible for millions of dollars in recoveries, fines, restitution, and settlements; indictments and convictions; and contractor debarment and suspensions. This office primarily hires special agents.

INTELLIGENCE

This office audits, evaluates, monitors and reviews the programs, policies, procedures, and functions of DoD intelligence disciplines and organizations across the DoD Intelligence Community, and also includes selected special access programs, nuclear surety, security, and research and technology protection issues within the Department. The work includes close interaction with other intelligence agencies, including the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the Defense intelligence agencies. The bulk of the nation's intelligence effort is undertaken by the intelligence agencies. This office primarily hires intelligence operations specialists and auditors.

POLICY AND OVERSIGHT

This office provides policy direction and oversight for all audit, investigative, and inspection activities within the DoD and provides technical support and advice for the audit, investigative, and inspection projects with a variety of expertise in areas such as engineering, computer science, operations research analysis, statistical support, and data mining. In addition, Policy and Oversight serves as the DoD central liaison with the Government Accountability Office on reports and reviews regarding DoD programs and activities.

This office monitors the actions taken in response to IG, Defense Contract Audit Agency, and Government Accountability Office recommendations for DoD leaders and managers to improve DoD operations and programs. This office primarily hires auditors, investigators, inspectors, and management analysts.

OTHER OFFICES AND CAREERS

Administration and Management, Office of Communications and Congressional Liaison, Office of General Counsel, Equal Employment Opportunity Office, and Special Plans and Operations offer a wide range of positions. These positions include program analysts, budget analysts, human resources specialists, information technology specialists, attorneys, writer/editors, public affairs specialists, and congressional liaison specialists.

DEFENSE HOTLINE

The Defense Hotline is staffed by professional investigators. The positions require knowledge of military, criminal and civil laws and procedures, as well as Defense Department and military services regulations.
