ABOUT THE HOTLINE

The Defense Hotline provides a confidential means of reporting instances of fraud, waste, abuse of authority, and mismanagement. The Office of Inspector General manages the Defense Hotline.

WHO OPERATES THE HOTLINE?

The Defense Hotline is staffed by professional investigators knowledgeable in military and civilian policies, procedures and regulations; Defense contracting procedures, as well as provisions of agency ethics regulations.

WHO SHOULD CALL?

DoD civilian and military personnel, Defense contractor employees, as well as private citizens.

WHEN SHOULD YOU CALL?

Disclosures should be made as soon as information is available. Telephone lines are open Monday - Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Eastern time.

WHAT YOU SHOULD EXPECT

Our primary responsibility is to receive and evaluate your concerns and complaints, and to determine the agency responsible to conduct an inquiry or investigation if appropriate.

We ask that you provide information that will help the investigator piece together the facts of the situation (who, what, when, where, and why) and assess the estimated dollar loss to the government.

An investigator will evaluate your complaint to determine if any investigation is warranted or if you should refer the matter to other authorities.

Calls are handled with confidentiality. You may also call or submit disclosure anonymously.

WHAT SHOULD BE REPORTED

- Whistleblower reprisal
- Contract and procurement fraud
- Cost/labor mischarging
- Computer crimes
- Counterfeit or substandard parts
- Health care fraud
- Product substitution
- Travel or purchase card fraud

SOUTHWEST ASIA REGION

Call Us via DSN:
312-664-1151

The Office of Inspector General provides oversight of DoD programs, operations, and personnel. We encourage DoD employees, contractor personnel, individuals serving in the Armed Forces, and members of the general public to report improper activity involving the Department of Defense.

In addition, DoD IG has a special toll-free Defense Hotline number to increase the ability of our military, contractors, and civilians in the Southwest Asia region to report allegations of fraud, waste and abuse, 1-877-363-3348.

POSTERS

We encourage military, contractors, and civilians in the Southwest Asia region to display the Southwest Asia posters.

You may request posters on the Web at: www.dodig.mil/hotline
