DCIS

Defense Criminal Investigative Service

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL U.S. Department of Defense

MISSION

Conduct highly relevant, objective, professional investigations of matters critical to DoD property, programs, and operations that provide for our national security with emphasis on life, safety, and readiness.

VISION

Remain a versatile, responsive and respected premier federal law enforcement agency, demonstrating excellence in all aspects of operations.

"I work with a group of people who strive for excellence in everything they do."

"The high point of my career at DCIS has been conducting investigations involving the illegal diversion of U.S. Munitions List items to criminal enterprises and terrorist organizations. I know this work will make a difference in protecting our warfighters."

PROTECTING THE WARFIGHTER

The Defense Criminal Investigative Service performs an integral role in protecting America's warfighters by investigating matters critical to our country's defense. As the law enforcement arm of the Department of Defense Inspector General, DCIS investigations help deter fraud, waste and abuse within DoD programs and operations.

DCIS special agents deploy worldwide to conduct investigations ensuring taxpayer dollars are better spent defending our nation.

DCIS IMPACT ON DOD OPERATIONS

Since its inception in 1982, DCIS investigations have resulted in more than $21 billion returned to the U.S. government in recoveries, restitution and fines. DCIS, working closely with state and federal law enforcement partners, participated in over 3,000 arrests and secured over 8,000 criminal convictions. In addition, 3,692 contractors and companies were suspended and 4,368 were debarred from doing work with the federal government.

DCIS prioritizes investigations that significantly impact DoD operations, to include:

- Procurement fraud
- Public corruption
- Product substitution/counterfeit parts
- Health care fraud
- Illegal transfer of sensitive DoD technology
- Cyber crime and computer network intrusions

PRODUCT SUBSTITUTION

SPECIAL AGENT CAREERS

DCIS is the criminal investigative arm of the DoD IG. Employment with DCIS offers individuals a unique opportunity to serve their country by conducting investigations that ensure DoD remains capable of deterring war and defending our nation.

DCIS special agents and support personnel are steadfastly committed to protecting America's warfighters by conducting investigations in support of crucial national defense priorities.

DoD IG is competitive with other federal law enforcement agencies in terms of career and pay progression.
