

Acquisition of the Boeing KC-767A Tanker Aircraft

MAR 29

The report found that the Air Force used an inappropriate procurement strategy and demonstrated neither best business practices nor prudent acquisition procedures to provide sufficient accountability for the expenditure of the KC-767A tanker program. DoD IG concluded that DoD should not proceed with the program unless reported procurement issues could be resolved. DoD later cancelled the $20 billion contract.

Report No. D-2004-064

2004

